Is Your Wife a Good Cook or a Poor Cook?

Be careful before you answer? You might do her an injustice and get your hair pulled in the bargain. Don't say she is a poor cook. Lay it to a poor cook stove. Bring her to Davidson's Cash Store and show her the thirty-four different patterns of Moore's Ranges from $20 to $67.50. ASBESTOS LINED, BOILER RIVETED, BIG SQUARE OVENS.

The man or woman who selects their own glasses thinking they are getting them cheaper are paying the highest price in the end. The eye is a very delicate organ and should be fitted by properly adjusted and perfectly made lenses. A word to the wise is sufficient. We fit your glasses right.

For Your Protection

Is the important part of any drug store. Ours is modern in every respect. In the high character of the drugs used, in the methods of compounding, in the skill of our pharmacists, it is thoroughly up-to-date. We believe that the service rendered has a value for you beyond any money value, and it costs you nothing extra whatever. Our prices are as low as good prescription work can be done anywhere—lower than the usual cost in most places.

ELECTION RETURNS—Arrangements have been made at the Hotel Adams for receiving general election returns tonight, in the hotel lobby.

MORE MANDAMUSES—Chairman Richmond of the republican county central committee made application in district court yesterday for three more writs of mandamus directing the county recorder to put the names of three more persons on the great register. The writs were issued. There are still a few more persons whose names have been left off the register but applications may be made in their behalf today.

COULDN'T SHOW HIM—R. O. Greeves, who was born in Missouri, but who is a republican nevertheless, has lived in Arizona for sixteen years up to last May. He decided then to go to the old home and settle down, but it was no use, he couldn't settle. He says there is more on the roofs of all the old houses and on the backs of some people that live in them. He asked the home folks to show him why that was a better country to live in than Arizona, but they couldn't do it. He got back to Phoenix yesterday.

A FINE SPECIMEN—George Hamilton brought in from the Relief mine yesterday a fine specimen of rock weighing approximately ten pounds. It is called "sylvite" by some but George calls it "just rock." It is speckled with gold on the outside and a fracture through the center shows that whoever made the earth mixed gold all through that layer of it. It comes from the face of the west drift in the mine and has been opened up to a width of four feet. What's ahead is guess work. The formation is very similar to a previous developed ledge forty or fifty feet distant and may be the same one but the indications are that it is another one.

PATIENCE REWARDED—Mrs. Mary A. O'Brien of Topeka, Kansas, has disposed of her real estate holdings at the corner of First avenue and Madison street, being lots 9 and 11 of block 63, to G. A. Wessenberg through the agency of Dwight B. Heard. Mrs. O'Brien has been the owner of this property since 1878 when she acquired it under the original town site of Phoenix, direct from John C. Alsup, probate judge. She was preferred to hold it until she could obtain what she considered a fair price, which she received yesterday, $32,000. Mr. Wessenberg, the present owner intends to erect a $500 residence on the property and otherwise improve it.

NEW OLIVE MILL MANAGEMENT—The Munger Bros., who have lately taken charge of the Perkins olive mill and ranch, were made happy yesterday by the arrival of their mother and sister from Cedar Rapids, Ia., and they will make Phoenix their home. The Munger Bros. came here last fall. They had already an interest in the ranch and mill which was owned by C. W. Perkins, the cashier of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, and which was managed by his cousin, L. W. Perkins. They expect to greatly enlarge the business. Beside using the olives of their own orchards they have contracted for most of the fruit raised in the valley. Their oil will go on the market under the Olivet brand.

A ST. LOUIS VISITOR—Charles W. Brown is here from St. Louis for a three weeks visit with a sick friend who has been here some time. Mr. Brown is employed by the Simmons Hardware Co. in a very responsible position and he is glad to get away from the hard work of the summer's rush in St. Louis, for the Simmons' establishment is really one of the show places of the city, being one of the largest hardware houses in the world. Mr. Brown's card bears the legend "at the front door," which signifies that he is the man who greets all visitors that come to the place on the ground of inspection or for business, and directs them to where they want to go. For the accommodation of visitors Mr. Brown has a corps of forty guides, one of whom is detailed with each party of visitors to show them through the establishment. In the event that this small army of guides is insufficient there is a reserve of fifty clerks Mr. Brown may call upon to assist in the work. Few who have not been in the Simmons Co.'s building have any idea of the magnitude of the business. There are 233 traveling men on the road all the time and the reader may perhaps imagine what an army of employees is required to not only run the St. Louis house but handle and ship all the merchandise disposed of by these traveling representatives.

RECOGNITION OF ABILITY

Miss Opdyke Appointed Principal of Tombstone Schools.

News has been received by Phoenix friends of Miss C. R. Opdyke, that she has been appointed to the principalship of the Tombstone schools. Miss Opdyke is well known in this city and indeed all over the territory, as a most estimable woman and a thorough educator. There are scores of friends both north and south who will be pleased to note this recognition of her ability.

Miss Opdyke taught in the Phoenix high school last fall and went from here to Tombstone to accept the position of assistant to the principal, teaching there the rest of last year. She was re-elected for the same position this year, but Professor Berner, the principal, was recently appointed superintendent of the Industrial school, leaving the vacancy that made the promotion of Miss Opdyke possible. It is pleasing to know also that she receives the same salary and emoluments as her predecessor, even though in some places less wages are paid to women instructors.

Before coming to Phoenix Miss Opdyke was principal of the Jerome schools for two years and also taught in the Prescott high school.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The Casino will receive returns election night and following day by its own special wire. Everybody welcome. Plenty of room.

Certainly we clean clothes and make them look good as new at S. Frankel & Co., 21 N. First street.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will begin their annual rummage sale on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 9th, in the Baxter building, opposite the city hall. Anyone having articles to donate will please notify the ladies and they will call for them.

Arizona needs an earnest, able conscientious hardworking man to look after her interests in Washington. B. A. Fowler is such a man. Vote for him—use your influence for him and you will never have reason to regret your action.
